

Speaker 1:

I was afraid. This was a tough situation. My world was turned upside down. I am a retired military veteran and I teach high school. 23 years in the Marine Corps took its toll on my body, physically and mentally. I suffered from PTSD and I had a breakdown. Rather than an ambulance coming, the police came. I was arrested. I reached out to Brent Mayr Law Firm and a young attorney by the name of Sierra Tabone was on duty. She said that I could come and speak with her and I did just that. She helped me to navigate through that web of uncertainty. I had confidence with her being along my side, it was like being in combat and having my battle buddy. I got your back, you got mine. Nothing would get in her way of being successful or obtaining her goal. We did go to court, the case was actually dismissed. What she had put together, I was blown away. I was thunderstruck. I'm here at my job fully instated because of her.

Speaker 1:

There's no best fit client for this law firm. Regardless of the background, education level, socioeconomic status, the Brent Mayr Law Firm represents the people. I'm speaking from my heart. I fight back the tears sometimes because I'm grateful. I'm just very, very grateful.
